Growth

At Blondie's, we provide beauty solutions one guest at a time. We cultivate a culture of success by using a level system that will help you become a top 1% specialist in the U.S. To further aid in your growth, we offer monthly one-on-one coaching sessions to ensure you reach your goals.

Team

Our team is an eclectic mix of artists and practitioners hailing from various backgrounds and experience levels. However, we share a common goal of delivering exceptional experiences and results to our guests. While we take our work seriously, we also love to have a good time. You can expect to hear plenty of laughter and friendly banter around here. After all, "work hard, play hard," right?

Flexibility

We believe that collaboration is key to creating a thriving business and a supportive work environment. Every team member is encouraged to offer feedback, and we provide regular opportunities to share your ideas. We value work-life balance, which is why we offer schedule flexibility, especially as you advance your career with us.

Support

When it comes to work, who we team up with is more crucial than where we choose to work. Here at Blondie's, we are committed to challenging our team, even if it means pushing them out of their comfort zones. We believe in the boundless potential of individuals and enjoy guiding them on the path to achieving their aspirations. Our coaching approach is an integral part of our philosophy, helping team members overcome obstacles and reach their goals. This sense of accomplishment is a powerful motivator, giving us the energy to tackle whatever comes next.

COME LEARN WITH US

Education is a fundamental value of our business and we're always on the lookout for ways to develop ourselves both personally and professionally. We provide opportunities for consistent education, both within and outside our organization, to support this growth.

Continuing Education

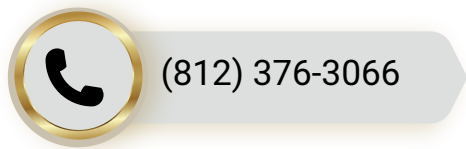

When you grow, we grow. We offer regular opportunities to hone your skills, receive coaching, and fine-tune your ability of ensuring that each guest leaves feeling their most beautiful, confident, and supported. Training opportunities include workshops, seminars with industry experts, and business coaching.

Apprenticeship Program

In addition, we have an Apprenticeship Program personalized and tailored to each employee, regardless if you're an established professional or entry level. We pair you with a seasoned mentor who can help you access a deeper kind of learning that comes faster than if you were going it alone. You'll go through training modules at your own speed and receive complete support as you become established at Blondie's.
